Welcome to Your Furry Friend's Home-Away-From-Home!

Get ready for a paw-some adventure, because you and your doggo have found the perfect place to stay!

We've got a limited number of rooms that have been furbished just for our four-legged guests, so make sure to let us know you're bringing your furry BFF when you book. We allow up to two pets per room, and each will have a small fee of £25 per stay.

Just a heads up, if there are any accidents or damages, there may be a fee for cleaning or repairs at check-out. To make sure all our guests have a positive experience, please keep your dogs on a lead around the hotel and be considerate of others who may be nervous around dogs.

Unfortunately, dogs aren't allowed in our Lacu Restaurant, but they're welcome everywhere else in the hotel. When you arrive, your furry friend will be greeted with a cosy dog bed, a water bowl, and a special treat. We ask that you please keep your dogs off the beds and soft furnishings to keep them comfy and clean.

If your pup likes to play in the mud, don't forget to bring a dog towel!

To ensure a peaceful stay for all guests, we reserve the right to end your stay immediately if there's excessive barking or unsociable behavior. Lastly, please pick up after your pup.

We know they're the cutest things on paws, but there are other guests here who don't want to step in any...surprises. Let's keep the grounds tidy for everyone's enjoyment.

Wishing you a paw-fect stay!

WINDERMERE

Once upon a time, there was a mischievous dog who decided it was time to take its human for a walk. The human, unsuspecting of the pooches plans, eagerly followed along.

However, before long, the dog led the human straight to the local pub!

The human, perplexed by the dog's behavior, entered the pub and was surprised to learn that earlier the hotel had provided a map of the local area, complete with recommended walking routes and the best pet friendly pubs to visit along the way.

The dog, looking very pleased with himself, had evidently been studying the map beforehand.

As the human sat down to enjoy a refreshing pint, the dog lay contentedly at their feet, tail wagging happily.

It seemed the mischievous pup had planned the perfect day out, with plenty of exercise and good food and drink to be had.

Who knew that a walking the dog could be so much fun?
